

Blanchard
UNIVERSITY

TIER 4 EMISSIONS

// Course#: CT4103

This course will feature web-based training prerequisites to be done on the CAT University website prior to class. The instructor-led training class will cover the layout of components, regulations involved, and troubleshooting tests used on the Tier 4 Interim and Final Emissions engines.

AFTER COMPLETION OF THIS COURSE, STUDENTS WILL:

- Understand the chemicals being regulated by Tier 4 Emissions.
- Explain the function of all Tier 4 components.
- Understand the different types of regen used in Tier 4 Emissions.
- Understand the different operator screen used in Tier 4 Emissions.
- Explain the chemical makeup of DEF.
- Demonstrate how to properly test DEF.

COURSE LENGTH:

- 3 Days

RECOMMENDED PREREQUISITES:

- CT4103 WBT Prerequisites complete

Contact us at BlanchardU@blanchardmachinery.com for more information and to register.

